This memory board was created by a member and is currently on display at the Clubhouse.

"The senseless loss of thirteen of America's finest in Afghanistan inspired me to create this memory board. My heart aches knowing their lives were needlessly cut short. During this month of Thanksgiving, I'd like to pay tribute and offer thanks to all of our military, past and present. I'm deeply grateful for their courageous service and appreciate their families' sacrifices. May God bless America and keep His protective arms around these heroes who selflessly give of themselves to protect our Nation."

Holiday Décor

Please keep seasonal decorations current. Holiday decorations should be removed within 30 days following the holiday in which they relate. Thank you!

SIMPLE SEASONAL DECORATING

It may sound silly to some however, changing your surroundings and adding a little seasonal décor to your space can help you feel energized as well as boost your state of mind as you eagerly anticipate cooler weather and the holidays.

Decorating does not have to be expensive or considered a luxury but a worthy investment to positively impact your emotions. Small changes like seasonal pillow covers for your existing pillows are an inexpensive choice to change up a sofa, chair or bedroom. Fresh flowers, fall gourds, pumpkins and mums are great for placing in around your home and can be found at your local nursery. Of course, places like Hobby Lobby, Michaels and dollar stores offer a variety of seasonal faux, glass and fabric pumpkins and flowers as well as wall décor which can be used over again the following year. Exchanging a wall picture or painting with a seasonal painting can transform any room.

In addition to decorating, adding seasonal candles and smells to your home can trigger your brain and emotions impacting your mind and body. Smells and their memory-inducing influences are the most significant senses you have. Burning candles, using an electric wax melting pot or simmering spices on the stove because smells have the power to significantly enhance your mood and emotions.

Lift your mental well-being by changing your physical environment in practical and easy ways. Be creative, be energized and design a little happiness, making memories within your home with seasonal decorating.

Fall Back

Daylight Saving Time ends at 2:00 AM on Sunday, November 7.

GARAGE SALE NOTES & NEWS

Following the first day of autumn, neighbors throughout Mira Lagos hosted garage sales the weekend of September 25th. The Shred Truck was available for destroying old documents and the City of Grand Prairie hosted a Trash Off in our neighborhood for convenient disposal of bulky items. It was a great weekend, without rain, for these outdoor organizing activities.

The City of Grand Prairie limits residents to two garage sales per year. To operate within the Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions (CC&R's) guidelines, residents of Mira Lagos HOA may conduct garage sales only on the dates designated by the association. Those dates are the first Saturday of spring and fall. The next Community-wide Garage Sale will be on Saturday, March 27, 2022.

Any resident conducting a garage on a date other than those set by the association is subject to a $75 fine.
